Portland Bay Lodge is accredited by the Australian Camps Association and staff are committed to provide the highest standard in camper safety and in providing quality outdoor experiences.

Portland and Surrounds...

Portland's first settlers were sealers and whalers, with Portland becoming one of the foremost whaling areas in the world. Since then Portland has steadily developed into a major coastal town full of history.

The whales still come to Portland and the local Maritime Discovery Centre offers a wealth of information about their preservation and importance to the area. Close to National Parks which includes the famous 'Great South West Walk', superb beaches including Bridgewater Bay, outstanding forest and coastal scenery Portland is 'Victoria's Birthplace by the Sea'.
